

145.The Vindication of Righteousness

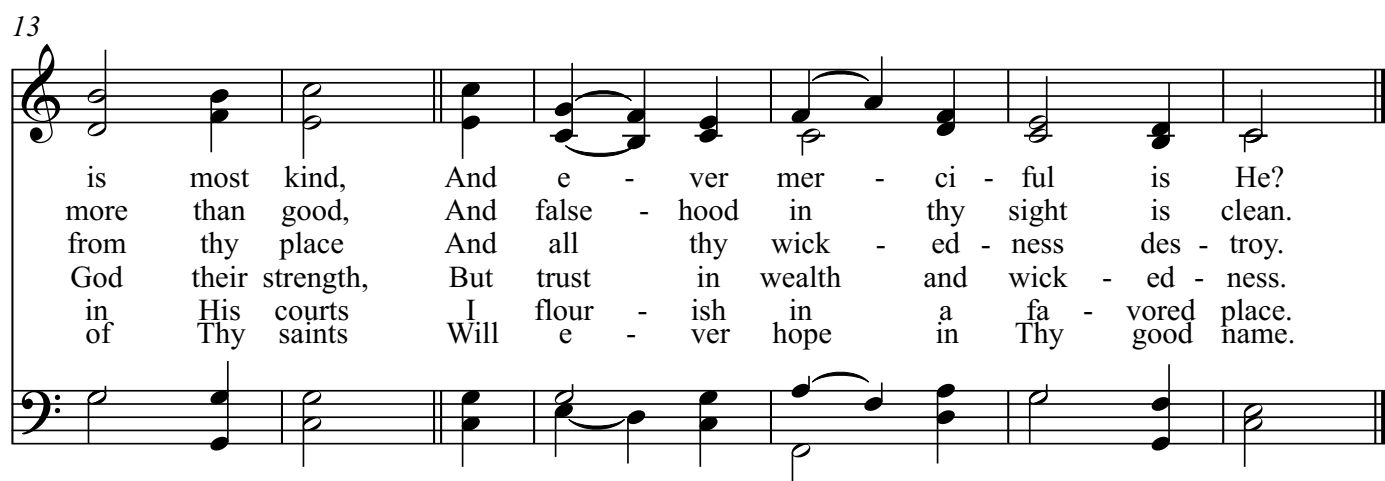

1.O might - ty man, why wilt thou boast Thy - self in
 2.Thy tongue de - vis - eth wick - ed - ness, A wea - pon
 3.Since, O thou false, de - ceit - ful tongue, In dead - ly
 4.The good, con - firmed in god - ly fear, The pride and 5.I put my trust in God a - lone, For e - ver -
 6.With end - less thanks, O Lord, to Thee, Thy won - drous

8

hate - ful cru - el - ty, When God Al - might - ty trea - che - rous and keen; Thou lov - est e - vil
 words Thou find - est joy, The Lord shall pluck thee fol - ly shall con - fess Of those who make not more works I trust His grace, And like the trees with - will I pro - claim, And in the pre - sence

13

is most kind, And e - ver mer - ci - ful is He?
 more than good, And false - hood in thy sight is clean.
 from thy place And all thy wick - ed - ness des - troy.
 God their strength, But trust in wealth and wick - ed - ness.
 in His courts I flour - ish in hope a fa - vored place.
 of Thy saints Will e - ver hope in Thy good name.