

208.Aspects of the Divine Character

1.A - mong His peo - ple God is known, Most glo - rious in His might and 2.When God the right - eous judge ap-peared To save the meek from wrong and 3.The wrath of man shall praise the Lord, Re-strained by His al - migh - ty 4.Let all to Him their pre - sents bring, To Him Whom all the world should grace; He makes Je - ru - sa - lem His throne, shame, The earth stood still and great - ly feared;

 will; Your vows to God the King re - cord,
 fear; Ye kings and prin - ces, own your King,

Her peace - ful hills His dwel - ling - place.
 Then forth from heav'n His sen - tence came.
 Your cov - enant made with Him ful - fill.
 With re - ve - rence and with awe draw near.