

209. Doubts Overcome by Faith

1. To God for help will I re - pair, To God will I di -
 2. In long con - tin - ued grief I stand And seek the Lord with
 3. I think of God and call to mind His good - ness, yet no
 4. With sleep-less eyes and speech-less grief I search the past to
 5. My con-stant me - di - ta - tions bring My heart to anx - ious rect my prayer, And sure - ly He will ans - wer me, out-stretched hand; I find no com - fort for my soul,

 peace I find; I still pour out my sad com - plaints, find re - lief, The for - mer years when days were bright ques - tion - ing: Has God cast off, and will He be

His great sal - va - tion I shall see.
 The clouds of dark - ness o'er me roll.
 My bur - dened spi - rit al - most faints.
 And songs of glad - ness cheered my night.
 No lon - ger mer - ci - ful to me?

6. Has God forgotten to be kind?
 Shall I His promise faithless find?
 For me shall wrath henceforth replace
 His tender mercies and His grace?

9. Among the nations Thou hast shown
 Thy wondrous power and made it known;
 Thou art the God that mightily
 Redeemed and set Thy people free.

7. In weakness I was pressed with fear,
 But better hopes my spirits cheer;
 Past mercies lead me to rely
 Upon the help of God Most High.

10. At sight of Thee the waters fled,
 The quaking clouds their torrents shed,
 The lightnings flashed, the thunder pealed,
 The trembling earth her fear revealed.

8. Thy deeds, O Lord, will I relate
 And on Thy wonders meditate;
 Thy way, O God, is just and right,
 And none is like to Thee in might.

11. Thy way, O God, was in the sea,
 But, though Thy paths mysterious be,
 Thy people Thou didst safely keep
 As shepherds lead their helpless sheep.