

286.A Faithful Creator

1.He wa - ters the hills with rain from the skies, And plen - ti - ful grass and 2.The trees which the Lord has plan - ted are fed, And o - ver the earth their 3.The sea - sons are fixed by wis - dom di - vine, The slow chang - ing moon shows 4.The Lord makes the night, when, leav - ing the lair, The li - ons creep forth, God's 5.How ma - ny and wise Thy works are, O Lord! The earth with the wealth of 6.Thy crea - tures all look to Thee for their food; Thy hand o - pens wide, they herbs He sup - plies, Sup - ply - ing the cat - tle, and bles - sing man's branch - es are spread; They keep in their shel - ter the birds of the forth God's de - sign; The sun in his cir - cuit his Ma - ker o - boun - ty to share; The Lord makes the mor - ning, when beasts steal a - wis - dom is stored; The sea bears in safe - ty the ships to and ga - ther the good; Thy face Thou con - ceal - est in an - guish they toil With bread in a - bun - dance, with wine and with oil. air, The life of each crea - ture the Lord makes His care. beys, And run - ning his jour - ney hastes not nor de - lays.

 way And men are be - gin - ning the work of the day.
 fro, And crea - tures un - num - bered it shel - ters be - low.
 yearn; Their breath Thou with - hold - est, to dust they re - turn.