

305. The Blessed Life

1. How blest the man who fears the Lord And great - ly loves God's
 2. A - boun - ding wealth shall bless his home, His right - eous - ness shall
 3. The man whose hand the weak be - friends In judg - ment shall his
 4. Of e - vil ti - dings not a - fraid, His trust is in the
 5. With kind re - mem - brance of the poor, For their dis - tress his
 6. To shame the wick - ed shall be brought, While right - eous men shall ho - ly will; His chil - dren share his great re - still en - dure, To him shall light a - rise in cause main - tain; A peace un - moved his life at - Lord a - lone; His heart is stead - fast, un - dis - gifts pro - vide; His right - eous - ness shall thus en - fa - vor gain; Un - right - eous hopes shall come to ward, And bles - sings all their days shall fill.

7

12

 gloom, For he is mer - ci - ful and pure.
 tends, And long his mem - 'ry shall re - main.
 mayed, For he shall see his foes o'er - thrown.
 dure, His name in ho - nor shall a - bide.
 naught, Its due re - ward shall sin ob - tain.