

435. The Ten Commandments of the Lord

1. My soul, with ho - ly awe re - mem - ber, The Lord, in
 2. "I am the Lord, Thy God and Sav - ior, I, out of
 3. "A - dor - ing i - dols are trans - gres - sions; I, am the bright - est maj - es - ty, At Hor - eb's mount, gave there His bond - age set thee free, De - liv - ered thee from slav - ish Lord, a jeal - ous God; I'll pun - ish to four gen - er - stat - utes, And spake these words to hear and see:

 la - bor; Hence, serve no oth - er gods, but Me!
 a - tions, Bless, who in right - eous paths have trod.

4. Thou shalt not take the Lord's name idly:
 Nor vainly use or falsely swear
 A treacherous oath, for they are guilty,
 Who sinfully do not forbear.

5. The sabbath-day thou shalt keep holy,
 Remember, sanctify and rest;
 For God, has hallowed to His glory
 The sabbath worship, which He blest

6. Honor thy father and thy mother,
 So that thy God, who lives for aye,
 Bless all thy efforts, with His favor
 Prolong thy life from day to day.

7. Thou shalt not kill, nor offenses,
 Break not the wedlock. Do not steal
 Thy neighbour's goods. Bear no false witness;
 Walk in God's law with fervant zeal.

8. Thine heart, shall never from thy neighbour
 Covet his house, his wife, his food;
 Thy soul, shall as thy mouth, with honor
 Sing praises, for the Lord is good!"

9. Grant grace O Lord, that we may treasure
 Thy law, and faithfully rejoice
 In Christ alone, with strength and pleasure
 Serve Thee, with thankful heart and voice.