

96. Contrasted Characters

1. Rest in the Lord and be thou still, With pa-tience wait His ho-ly will, En-
 2. The e-vil-do-er soon shall die, But those that on the Lord re-ly Shall
 3. Yea, thou shalt soon con-si-der well The place where they were want to dwell, And
 4. The vile may plot a-gainst the just Who in the Lord Je-ho-vah trust, But du-ring to the end. Fret not though sin-ners' gains in-crease;

 all the land ob-tain; A lit-tle while and thou shalt see it shall not be found; But saints shall all the land pos-sess, God will scorn them all; The Lord their co-ming day shall see,

For-sake thy wrath, from an-ger cease; It will to e-vil tend.
 That wick-ed men cut off shalt be, They shall be sought in vain.
 And find de-light and hap-pi-ness Where fruits of peace a-bound.
 When bro-ken all their pow'r shall be, And ru-in on them fall.