

97. Well-Doing and Well-Being

1. A lit - tle that the right eous hold Is bet - ter far than wealth un - told
 2. He know the days the per - fect live, To them a he - ri - tage will give
 3. Al - though the wick - ed pros - pered seem, At last they va - nish like a dream
 4. They bor - row oft and pay not back, But right eous men do noth - ing lack,

Of ma - ny wick - ed men; Des - troyed shall be their arm of pride,
 Which e - ver shall a - bide; In e - vil times no shame they know,
 And pe - rish in a day; Je - ho - vah's foes shall soon ap - pear
 And give with gra - cious hand; Those cursed by Him shall be des - troyed,

But they who in the Lord con - fide Shall be u - phol - den then.
 And in the days of fa - mine's woe They shall be sa - tis - fied.
 Like fields once fair, now brown and sear; Like smoke they fade a - way.
 But such as have His grace en - joyed, They shall pos - sess the
