

136.The Issues of Life

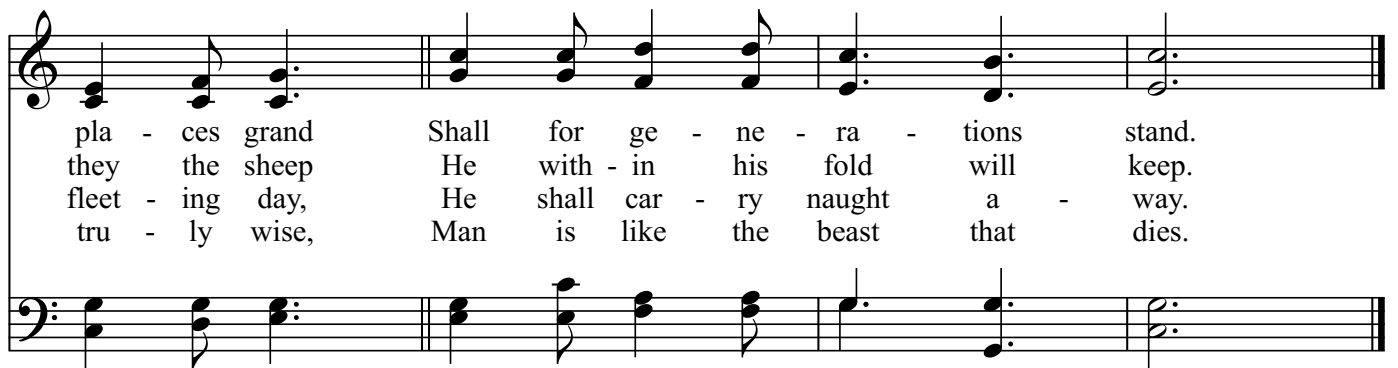

1.Dust to dust, the mor-tal dies, Both the foo-lish and the wise; None for - e - ver 2.To their landsthey give their name In the hope of las-ting fame, But man's ho - nor 3.O'er them soonshall rule the just, All their beau-ty turn to dust; God my wait-ing 4.Though in life he wealth at - tained, Though the praise of men he gained, He shall join those can re - main, Each must leave his hoar-ded gain. Yet with-in their heart they say quick-ly flies, Like the low - ly beast he dies. Though such fol - ly mark their way, soul shall save, He will raise me from the grave. Let no fear dis - turb your peace gone be - fore, Where the light shall shine no more. Crowned with ho - northough he be,

That their hou - ses are for aye, That their dwel - ling - Men ap - prove of what they say; Death their shep - herd, Though one's house and wealth in - crease; Death shall end his High - ly gif - ted, strong and free, If he be not pla - ces grand Shall for ge - ne - ra - tions stand.

 they the sheep He with - in his fold will keep.
 fleet - ing day, He shall car - ry naught a - way.
 tru - ly wise, Man is like the beast that dies.