

21. Unshaken Faith Amid Danger

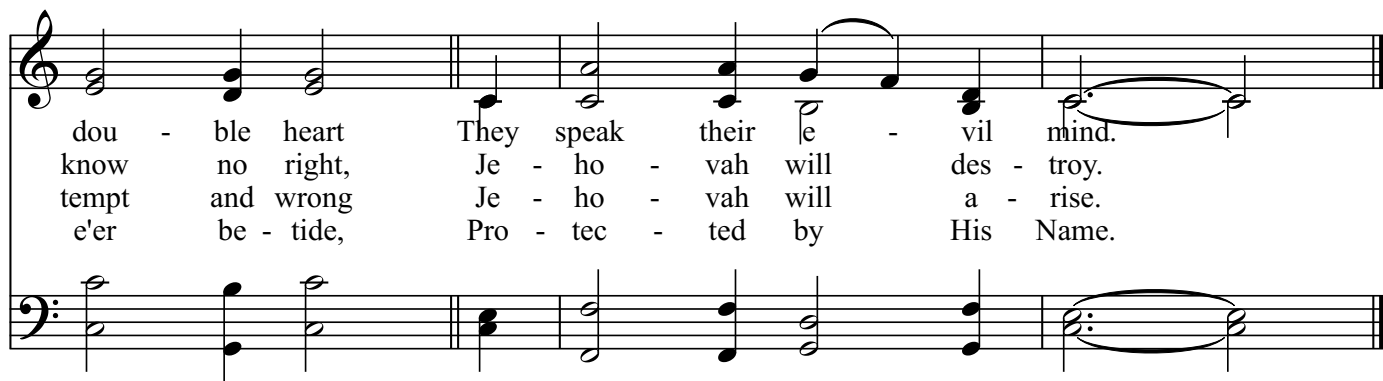

1. O Lord, be Thou my hel - per true, For just and god - ly
 2. The lips that speak, the truth to hide, The tongues of ar - ro -
 3. Be - cause the poor are sore op - pressed, Be - cause the nee - dy 4. Je - ho - vah's pro - mi - ses are sure, His words are true, His men are few; The faith - ful who can find? From truth and wis - dom gance and pride, That boast - ful words em - ploy, False - speak - ing tongues that are dis - tressed, And bit - ter are their cries, The Lord will be their words are pure As sil - ver from the flame. Though base men walk on men de - part, With flat - tering lips and boast their might, That own no law, that hel - per strong; To save them from con - ev' - ry side, His saints are safe, what - dou - ble heart They speak their le - vil mind. know no right, Je - ho - vah will des - troy. tempt and wrong Je - ho - vah will a - rise.

 e'er be - tide, Pro - tec - ted by His Name.