

223. Responsibility of Civil Officers

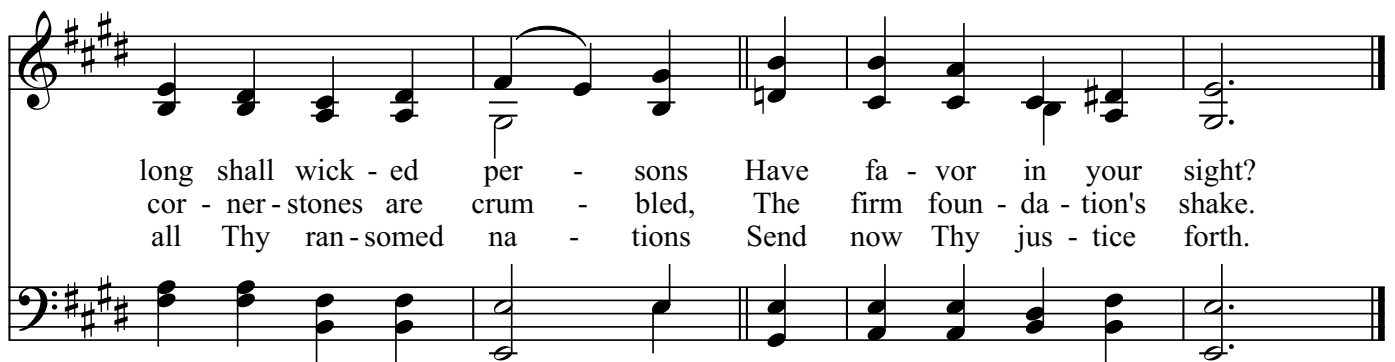

1. Wher - e'er His crea-tures ga - ther The un - seen God is near; Let
 2. Do jus - tice for the help - less, The or-phan's cause main - tain; De - 3. The Most High God has called you And set you up on high, But rul - ers fear their Rul - ers Their Judge let jud - ges fear. How long, ye earth-ly fend the poor and nee - dy, Oppressed and wronged for gain. When rul - ers walk in ye to Him must ans - wer, For ye like men must die. A - rise, O God E - jud - ges, Will ye per - vert the right? How dark - ness, When jud - ges truth for - sake, The ter - nal, Thou Judge of all the earth, Through long shall wick - ed per - sons Have fa - vor in your sight? cor - ner - stones are crum - bled, The firm foun - da - tion's shake.

 all Thy ran - somed na - tions Send now Thy jus - tice forth.