

281.A Mindful God

1. Mind - ful of our hu - man frail - ty Is the God in Whom we trust;
 2. Man is like the ten - der flo - wer, And His days are like the grass,
 3. Change - less is Je - ho - vah's mer - cy Un - to those who fear His Name,
 4. All the faith - ful to His co - venant Shall be - hold His right eous - ness;

He Whose years are e - ver - las - ting, He re - mem - bers we are dust.
 Wi - thered where it late - ly flour - ished By the bligh - ting winds that pass.
 From e - ter - ni - ty a - bi - ding To e - ter - ni - ty the same.
 He will be their strength and re - fuge, And their chil - dren's chil - dren bless.
