

296.Providential Visitations

1.Springs and streams no lon - ger bless All the dry and thir - sty land; Fer - tile 2.Once a - gain the wa - ters well, All the de - sert blos - soms fair; There He 3.Now He bles - ses them in - deed, They are great - ly mul - ti - plied; On the 4.His con - tempt the prin - ces taste; Dri - ven out they help - less fly, Wan d'ring 5.When His right eous jud - gments come, Strong to bless and to des - troy, All in - fields in ver - dant dress God con - verts to de - sert sand; For that makes the hun - gry dwell, There a ci - ty they pre - pare, Plant their hills their cat - tle feed, Fast in - creas - ing, spread - ing wide; Then a - in the track - less waste; But He lifts the nee - dy high, Where no i - qui - ty is dumb, All the right eous sing for joy; Who Je - they who dwell there - in Turn to wick - ed - ness and sin. vines and sow their fields, And the earth her in - crease yields.

 gain they are brought low Through op - pres - sion, grief, and woe.
 e - vil shall an - noy, And with chil - dren gives him joy.
 ho - vah wise - ly heed, In His works His mer - cy read.