1. Thou Who didst make and fa - shion me, O make me wise, Thy law to learn;
2. Thou Lord, art just in all Thy ways, And faith - ful Thou chas - ten - est me;
3. Show mer - cy, Lord, that I may live, For in Thy law is all my joy;
4. Let those that fear Thee turn to me, Thy truth to them will I pro - claim;

Then they that fear Thee shall be glad When they my hope in God dis - cern.
I pray Thee, let Thy pro - mised grace Thy ser - vant's help and com - fort be.
While those who wrong me are re - buked, Thy pre - cepts shall my thought em - ploy.
In - struct my heart to keep Thy law, That I may not be put to shame.
