

442. Our Gracious God Has Laid His Firm Foundations

1. Our gra - cious God has laid His firm foun - da - tions On Zi - on's mount, the
 2. What glo - rious things, O cit - y of Je - ho - vah, Are spo - ken in me -
 3. The Moor with the Phil - is - tine and the Tyr - ian Shall soon, O Zi - on, courts of His de - light; Her gates of splen - dor, bathed in heav'n - ly lo - dious tones of thee! Lo, Ra - hab, e - ven Ba - bel, I will throng thy ho - ly gate; In glad - some strains we'll hear her sons re - light, He loves far more than Ja - cob's hab - i - ta - tions.

 see 'Mid hal - lowed cho - rus sing - ing Hal - le - lu - jah.
 late: "These all were born with - in the walls of Zi - on"

4. God will Himself confirm them with His blessing,
 And on the roll of nations He will count
 All these as on Zion's holy mount,
 In many tongues one God, one faith confessing.

5. Then shall God's Name with holy adoration
 And joyful tones be praised by Israel's throng;
 Both harp and voice will blend in swelling song;
 "In Zion are the founts of salvation."