

99. The Righteous and the Evil-Doer

1. The wick - ed, watch - ing for their prey, De - sire the right - eous
 2. Wait on the Lord and keep His way; He will ex - alt thee, 3. The wick - ed in great pow'r are seen, Likespread - ing tree with 4. Mark thou the up - right day by day, Be - hold the per - fect man to slay, But God is on his side; He will not nor de - lay To give the land to thee; And when the fo - liage green That grows in na - tive ground. I looked a - in his way: His jour - ney ends in peace. Des - troyed at leave him in their hands, Nor count him guil - ty wick - ed are cut off, The wick - ed who a - gain, they were no more; I sought the men so once shall re - bels be; Cut off from all pos - when he stands In judg - ment to be tried. gainst thee scoff, Their judg - ment thou shalt see.

 proud be - fore, But they could not be found.
 te - ri - ty, Their ve - ry name shall cease.